

06/13/2024

To whom it may concern,

The three trees, that were together along the south side of the property, were three small apple trees that had a maggot problem. The other tree next to the existing house was also beginning to rot and look sick. A picture of the stump is attached. I took these trees down myself as they were small enough to do so.

Sincerely,

Cornel Termure

