Kirkland Planning Commission
July 25, 2024

1. CALL TO ORDER (6:01 PM)

2. ROLL CALL (6:01 PM)

Members Present: Rodney Rutherford - Chair, Bria Heiser - Vice Chair, Katya Allen, Aaron Jacobson, Gina Madeya, Scott Reusser, and Angela Rozmyn.

Members Absent: None.

Staff Present: Adam Weinstein - Planning and Building Director, Allison Zike - Planning and Building Deputy Director, LeAndra Baker-Lewis - Senior Planner, Bryan Cole - Program Specialist, and Jeannie Dines - Recording Secretary.

3. COMMENTS FROM THE AUDIENCE (6:02 PM)

1. Forrest Whitehouse, Kirkland, spoke regarding concerns voiced about traffic from increased density and everyone's ability to minimize their impacts on traffic. He expressed his support for development on the Par Mac site.
2. Luke Travis, Kirkland, spoke regarding skepticism around the economics of housing, supply and demand of housing, and allowing supply to meet demand.
3. Larry Waldman, Kirkland, expressed concern that the Comprehensive Plan wasn't comprehensive and seems all about growth.
4. Jennifer Ohayon, Kirkland, questioned the proposal to allow 50-200 units/acre in single family neighborhoods. She was concerned she did not hear her voice or the voice of the majority on the Planning Commission.
5. Martin Stoddart, Kirkland, described his objections to the proposed land use changes in the Comprehensive Plan.
6. Liz Hunt, Kirkland, commented on the lack of transparency in the development of the Market Neighborhood Plan.
7. Ken MacKenzie, Kirkland, relayed his concern with proposals in the Comprehensive Plan that enforce regularity and uniformity.
8. Sarah Jokar Deris, Kirkland, displayed a photograph of a 7-story apartment building in her backyard and relayed her concern with development on the Par Mac site behind her house.
9. Kathleen Miller, Kirkland, described her concern with the lack of vision and consistency and the traffic on Market Street.

10. Jane Ainbinder, Kirkland, Co-Chair of the Norkirk Neighborhood Association, recommended proper infrastructure for the proposed increase in density.

11. Rich Nelson, Kirkland, relayed concern with the proposal to allow 4-6 story buildings in his neighborhood west of Market.

12. Chris Brenneke, Kirkland, suggested the City provide mailings regarding the proposed changes in the Market Street Neighborhood Plan.

13. Bryan Olay, Kirkland, commented on the need for more information about the goals of the Comprehensive Plan and metrics for success.

14. Jill Stoddart, Kirkland, relayed concern that the 10-minute neighborhood that the transit corridors are based on does not match the economic reality.

15. Lobak Kinea, Kirkland, described her concern with the lack of infrastructure planning and data regarding the need for additional density.

16. Judy Ford, Kirkland, expressed concern the process was not transparent. She asked how long each Commissioner has lived in Kirkland.

17. Christine Krasinski, Kirkland, commented on the lack of transparency, concern Commissioners seem pro-growth, high density does not mean fewer cars, and her fear developers will build as many units as possible.

18. Ishu Shu, Kirkland, commented on the issue of affordability and the lack of transparency or vision in the Comprehensive Plan.

19. Barbara Loomis, Kirkland, expressed concern with the lack of transparency and the way Kirkland is headed and urged Commissioners not to always approve staff's recommendations.

20. Mary Jessen, Kirkland, expressed concern with the lack of communication and transparency.

4. SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS - N/A (7:00 PM)

5. STUDY SESSION - N/A (7:00 PM)
